

Hague ON LAKE GEORGE

Hague on Lake George is a scenic all-season resort community located on the northern shores of the crystal clear waters of Lake George in the picturesque Adirondack Mountains.

Here in Hague you will find a resort area that is non-commercialized, uncrowded and unspoiled, with many resorts having private sand beaches that are among the finest on Lake George. Hague maintains its own Town Park including swimming facilities and boat launching site. Gently rolling hills and mountains provide a fitting backdrop to the azure-blue "Queen of American Lakes".

Silver Bay Association

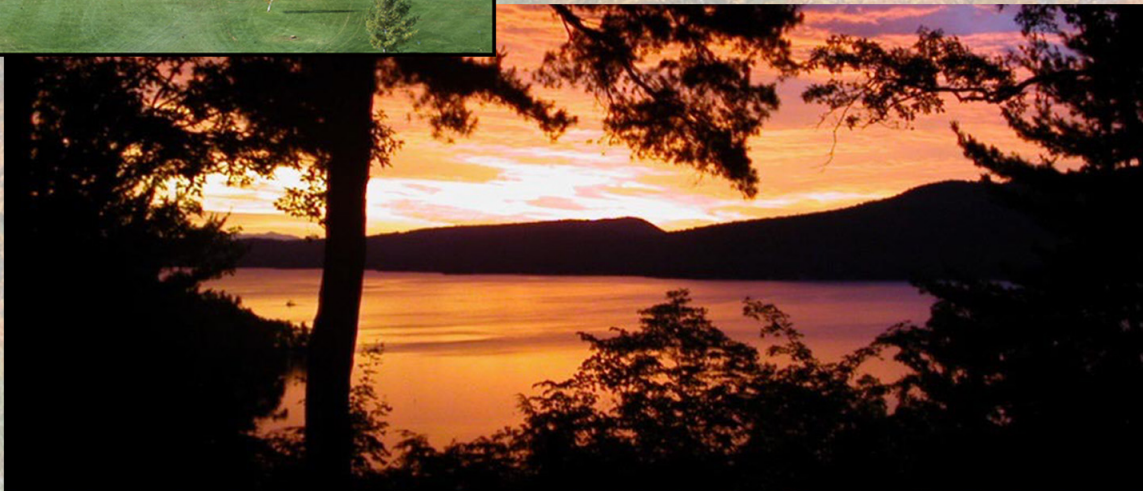

Island Camping

Boat Cruises

Fort Ticonderoga

Hague offers four-season enjoyment for everyone. The Spring and Summer boast of boating, swimming, mountain biking, fishing facilities, horseback riding, camping, golf and tennis at nearby Ticonderoga Country Club. Fall ushers in spectacular colors and excellent hunting opportunities. Winter heralds the arrival of ice fishing, cross-country skiing, snowshoeing and snowmobiling. Special events include the National Ice Auger Championships and local winter weekend.

Located on the Heritage Trail, Hague is within easy driving distance of Fort Ticonderoga, Mount Defiance with its magnificent view of Lake George, Lake Champlain and Crown Point. Additionally, there are several local and area museums to visit. The restoration and preservation of much of America's heritage, together with year round activity, make Hague truly a family all-season recreation area.

*Join Us.... at Northern Lake George
Year 'Round
Adirondack Vacationland*